The nutritional information is based upon data obtained from our suppliers and computerized analysis of the ingredients based upon standard portions. The actual nutritional content may vary per serving since there are natural variations in fresh ingredients, the product is often prepared locally, actual serving portions are approximate and the items tested may have been substituted. If you are sensitive to certain foods or nutritional amounts, you should not solely rely upon the nutritional information in determining whether to consume that item. Zero (0) content references may mean a negligible or unmeasurable amount. As we obtain additional information, these amounts may be modified. Please contact us if you have any questions.

The nutritional information is based upon data obtained from our suppliers and computerized analysis of the ingredients based upon standard portions. The actual nutritional content may vary per serving since there are natural variations in fresh ingredients, the product is often prepared locally, actual serving portions are approximate and the items tested may have been substituted. If you are sensitive to certain foods or nutritional amounts, you should not solely rely upon the nutritional information in determining whether to consume that item. Zero (0) content references may mean a negligible or unmeasurable amount. As we obtain additional information, these amounts may be modified.
